Twin Cities Oktoberfest

Don't put away your lederhosen just yet. Those who didn't get their Oktoberfest fix in September can soak in the Germanic experience at the 10th anniversary of this two-day celebration, Oct. 4-5 in the Progress Center at the Minnesota State Fair. Grab a general admission ticket or upgrade to a stein package for a free first fill of beer or cider while you enjoy traditional foods, performances, games and vendors.

Meritage Oysterfest

No one in the Twin Cities does oysters quite like Meritage, and they're taking it to the next level with the 8th annual Oysterfest on Oct. 13. The restaurant will shuck through 25,000 oysters (70 per minute) in all forms—raw, smoked, grilled and fried.

Fall Art Crawl

The Saint Paul Art Crawl returns for its fall installment, Oct. 11-13. This popular event takes you through Lowertown and beyond to explore unique works from talented artists in a variety of Capital City neighborhoods.

Monster Dash

The largest Halloween race in the upper Midwest returns to Saint Paul, Oct. 26. Throw on a costume and take on the half marathon, 10-mile, 10K or 5K—the half and 10-mile start at CHS Field, while the 5K and 10K leave from the Cathedral.

In addition to all of these great events, we've also got some other ideas for how you can spend a weekend enjoying all the beauty fall has to offer.

As always, show us how much fun you're having by sharing with us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter using the hashtag #MYSAINTPAUL.

Monster Bash Halloween Music Fest

After you dash, it's time to bash at Lake Monster Brewing's 2019 Monster Bash on Oct. 26. This annual fan-favorite event will feature a killer lineup of live music, beer and a costume contest—of course. $9 advance tickets and $15 at the door.

Election Day- November 5th.

Dark Arts Festival- November 3rd

Hi- Rise activities:

Hamline and Seal have Halloween parties. Some hi-rises call them Harvest parties instead of Halloween parties.

Hennepin Theatre Access will be stopping the free ticket program after this season. (They will be focusing on giving tickets to high school students going forward.)

Check into whether it is allowed to use the term Halloween in hi-rises. There was mention that it might not be.)
