

Community Sharing Minutes

2/7/20

Attendees: Melissa Pappas (Seal), Sharon Baker,(Montreal), Angela Graves (Hamline), Anna Rush (Hamline), Roxanne Sands (Volunteer), Leonard Thomas (Seal), John Cardoza, Lunda Dimmen (Cleveland), Charlotte Pernell (Ravoux), Pat Pack (Valley), Trintia, Alesia Wentworth, Annette (Ravoux), Julia Hupperts (PHA), Natalie Mikkelson (PHA)

St. Paul Events

Vulcan's snow park at the St. Fair grounds. Through February 22nd. Snow slide, snow sculptures.

Mall of America transit center formal opening is on February 14th. There will be customer appreciation events too.

The libraries have Tinker Tuesdays. 5:30-7:30p.m. They also have fix it clinics and innovation labs. The East Side Freedom Library has a lot of events too. (1105 Greenbrier street)

February 24th- "Stolen"- by Richard Bell.

Rondo Library has an event on building relationships with your ancestors. It deals with African customs and beliefs.

Music history trivia event at the Minnesota History Center. February 11th, 7p.m.

Trivia is free. History Center admission is required though.

February 12th. Dentistry from the Heart event. Free Dental care for those in need. Shamblott Dentistry. 400 Selby Ave.

March 10th is ACLU lobby day at the State Capitol. Rally at 1:30 and then groups will talk to state legislators. Key issues are protecting email privacy, considering people's ability to pay before assessing fines.

February 25th. Tibetan Losar celebration at Union Depot. It starts at 11:00a.m.

The Minnesota History Center is free every Tuesday from 5-8p.m.

Census jobs are still available. This income doesn't affect your rent or benefits. Census jobs pay at least $22 per hour.

Hi-Rise events:

Montreal is doing a number of Black History themed events this month. They are having a soul food dinner as well. There are a lot of educational Black History podcasts. "1619" is a good one. Seal is having a Black History event in March.

There will be monthly events done as part of the Bounce Back program. February will be a kindness challenge. Other monthly events will be seasonally themed like Earth Day.

Things like chair yoga could be done at Community Sharing meetings.

The fact that the Community Sharing meetings are open to all residents will be discussed at the next Presidents Council meeting. The Community Sharing page from the Residents Council guide could be posted with the monthly flyer as well.