

Community Sharing Circle
5/3/19

Attendees:

Melissa Pappas, Donna Walters, Rosie Leisze, Roxanne Sands, Sharon Baker,
Vanessa, Jean Becker

May is Asian Pacific heritage month and a Mental Health Awareness month.
May 31st at Bryant-Lake Bowl- My stigma is stigmier than yours play.

Seal is trying having a weekly game where people sit in a circle with a sheet between them and a ball on top of the sheet. It went over well last week.

Seal has Wii game day once a month. It is set for a certain time and anyone interested just comes down to play. Ravoux and Montreal also have Wii consoles. (Montreal has an issue with cables for theirs.)

Garden committee meetings have started. Seal had a meeting where people were shown how to grow bulbs hydroponically inside. (Using an empty 64oz juice bottle to hold the bulb and water.
Montreal gets a lot of their plants from the Friends School plant sale.

Starting in July the Community Sharing Circle will be Meeting at a different hi-rise each time. It will need to be determined which site will host the meeting. The hi-rise hosting won't need to do anything besides have someone to let people in for the meeting.

May 2-5is Festival of Nations at Rivercenter. May 5th is the Mayday festival at Powderhorn Park.
May 4th is Free Comic Book day. (And Star Wars day.) May 4th there is a health and well-being fair at Fairview community center.
There are Star Wars activities at the Science Museum on May 4th.

Next meeting: June 7th
